Park Road Opening Sunday at 4 o'clock

A grand opening and celebration of dedicating a new and modern road system is planned at Palo Duro State Park Sunday. At present workers are busy putting the playground in condition to accommodate the influx of visitors during the dedication ceremonies Sunday.

The old Goodnight dugout, used by the fabulous Charles Goodnight during the early days of cattle ranching in this region, is to be restored. According to John McCarty work on the dugout will probably not be completed by Sunday.

C of C Elects New Officers for 1952

The Chamber of Commerce recently mailed ballots to all its members asking that they elect the officers for 1952. This is a little different procedure than that followed in the past few years. Formerly the directors themselves appointed new board members to serve on Chamber of Commerce activities. Now there is a new policy set up by the present board of directors. When they took office in 1951 they decided to give members a voice in all chamber activities.

The hold-over directors, or directors who were appointed last year asked that their names be placed on the ballot in order that the membership might vote on them, as well as the new directors. Retiring directors for this year are W. W. Sternberg, who has served as president; James Cole, who has served as secretary; Clay Cooper and Al Kieselbach.

The board of directors who have served one year, and who are elected for another year are Clark Jarnagin, E. E. Davis, Dr. Charles Nester, Bob Bellah and Cliff Mlinar.

The following men were elected to replace the outgoing members, E. M. Myers, Charlie Donnell, Clarence Eugene Thompson and Emmett Smith. These directors will lead the activities of the Chamber of Commerce during the coming year.

In order to continue the work of the chamber in helping the entire community to continue prosperously, the directors immediately solicited the help of all chamber members in carrying out plans for the coming year.

Annual Christmas Program Dec. 2nd Methodist Church

The Wesleyan Service Guild will present the second annual Christmas program entitled "In Christ There Is No East or West," at the First Methodist Church on December 2 at 7:30 p. m.

In reminiscence of the last Christmas season the delightful program of students of different nationalities will be remembered. This service will be similar to that given last year but slight changes will be made.

Among those participating in the service will be 50 students from Carver High School in Amarillo; 20 students from Dwight Morrow School in Amarillo; a Chinese family; three Hawaiian students; five Latvians, and four Puerto Rican students. Rev. J. Weldon Butler will be the narrator.

You are invited to come and worship at this occasion.

L. C. Moreman Had Operation Thursday

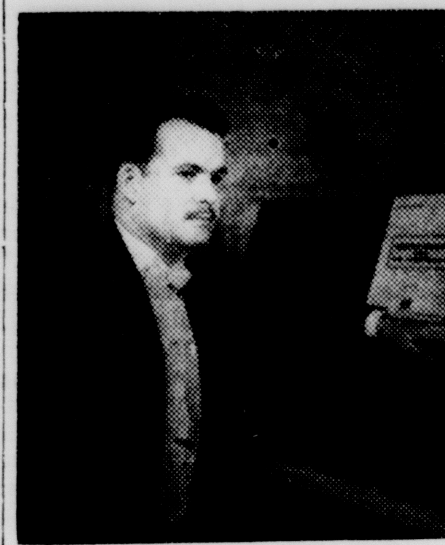

L. C. Moreman is in an Amarillo hospital where he underwent an operation Thursday. His condition remained critical Monday.

His daughters, Mrs. Russell Jones of Childress and Mrs. Tommie Thompson of Austin, joined their mother at his bedside.

SANDY OLIVER TO SAIL FOR KOREA ON DECEMBER 18

1st Lt. Sandy Oliver will leave Korea December 18 and will spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oliver.

Local Talent Team To Give Recital

HOLMES AMBROSE

Holmes Ambrose, talented tenor of West Texas State College Music Department, and the equally talented pianist, Matilda Gaume, will give a faculty recital December 2. The program will be presented by the West Texas State College Music Department at 4:00 p. m. in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

This team is no stranger to the folks of this area. They have performed at various club and educational functions during the past few months. The two musicians have been generous with their abundance of talent and everywhere they have been they have left a satisfied and appreciative audience. The faculty recital December 2nd promises a special treat to music lovers.

Teachers Hear Panel Discussion

The Canyon Chapter of Classroom Teachers will meet Tuesday, December 4, in the home of Mrs. Joe Findley, 400 Tenth Street, at 7:30 in the evening.

The highlight of the evening's program will be a wire-recording of a panel discussion on the evaluation program by leading educators at Texas State Teachers' Association last week in Houston.

After the wire-recording, work on the Canyon evaluation program will be discussed, and the meeting will be thrown open for a question and answer period. A social hour will conclude the evening's work.

Mrs. Camille Bell, president of the organization, urges every member to be present, since the plans for the year's work is of extreme interest to each teacher.

Dr. Cornette Named M. C. of Banquet To Honor the Governor

Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College, will serve as Master of Ceremonies at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet January 15 which will be honored this year with the presence of Governor Allan Shivers. The banquet is scheduled for 7:30 and will be held in the College Cafeteria. The Amarillo Air Force orchestra will provide dinner music for the occasion.

Because of the limited space afforded by the College Cafeteria, the Chamber of Commerce plans to sell only 400 tickets. Chamber members will be solicited first. In fact, cards will be sent out next week inviting Chamber of Commerce members to get the desired number of tickets early.

Requests have already been received by people in neighboring towns for tickets. When Chamber members have all the tickets they want, then tickets will be sold to others who desire to attend the event.

Dollar Day To Be Held Friday December 7th

The December Community Dollar Day will be held in Canyon on Friday, December 7th.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill Injured In Car Accident

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill were in a car wreck north of Canyon Monday afternoon in which both were badly bruised and Dr. Hill suffered a broken collarbone.

They spent the night at the Neblett Hospital but were taken to their home at 2711 Fourth Avenue Tuesday morning where they are resting. Dr. Hill was able to go to the postoffice Tuesday morning, and to look after his car which was badly damaged in the accident.

Mrs. Hill suffered no broken bones. It was feared at first that her back might be again injured from the accident. She was in the hospital several weeks last spring as the result of a fall in an Austin hotel.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Marion Hill of Borger, was notified of the accident and came to be of assistance to her parents.

The accident occurred when Dr. Hill was making a turn on the pavement to return home. A car driven by V. E. Hayworth of Anthon, Iowa, was headed north and in attempting to pass the Hill car hit the rear left fender, turning the Hill car upside down. Mrs. Hayworth and Mrs. Lois Suckstorf were taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Hayworth escaped injury.

A number of Canyon friends rushed to the hospital as soon as word spread of the accident, offering aid to Dr. and Mrs. Hill.

Light Shower Fell Over the Plains Saturday

A light shower, which measured .15 of an inch, fell in Canyon during Saturday.

Mist started to fall early and continued throughout most of the day.

The temperature has been near the freezing mark throughout the week, making this one of the coldest weeks of the winter so far.

Colorful Yuletide Decorations Are Planned for Canyon

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce is rebuilding and replacing the Christmas lights that have been used on the streets of Canyon for many years. At a recent board of directors meeting the board voted to repair the old Christmas lights and add 1,500 new lights to the present stock.

The Canyon voluntary firemen are helping repair the old Christmas lights. Another decoration being planned for the Christmas season is the improvement of the Christmas nativity scene atop the county courthouse.

Much praise was given this scene last Christmas season by local citizens and tourists who could see the scene from Amarillo hill north of town.

The American Association of University Women is having a meeting Friday night of this week at which time they will turn the meeting into a Christmas decorating workshop. They will make various decorations which will be placed on the street lights around the city square. Much work is being done to make Canyon a city to reflect the true Christmas spirit.

Buffalo Cagers To Play 66'ers

The West Texas State College basketball squad will meet the tall team of Phillips 66 hoopers here December 3. During 1941 and '42 the West Texan team was one of the tallest of all time, but the one the 66'ers are bringing to town is taller by nearly three inches per man. Although the Buffaloes have not had another team with the altitude of the 1941-42 squad, they have continued to come up with some good teams.

The Phillips quintet will be out to win every game of the season in order to approach their former record. During past years the Buffaloes have contributed such players as Joe Fortenberry, Charley Halbert and Frank Stockman to the 66 team. So, when the two teams meet here next Tuesday there is the possibility that some of the Buffs will be playing against future teammates.

Delegates Home From Houston Trip

Delegates to the Farm Bureau Convention held in Houston last week returned home in time for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Most of the delegates traveled by car. They greatly enjoyed the hospitality of the convention city.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Phillips of Darrouzett spent Thanksgiving in the R. D. Lowry home. In the afternoon they attended the bi-district football game between Darrouzett and Lazbuddie for the championship of six-man football in Class B schools. The game was played at Lazbuddie.

Erdman Writes Another Prize Winning Novel

Loula Grace Erdman's latest novel, "The Wind Blows Free," is a family book that has been given the Dodd-Mead annual American Girl prize. The novel will be serialized in the American Girl Magazine during the spring and will appear in book form in the fall of 1952.

"The Wind Blows Free" is the story of a homesteading family in the Panhandle of Texas during the '90's.

Miss Erdman, who is the author of five other books, was recently re-elected vice-president of the Texas Institute of Letters organization at Dallas. In 1947 the novel, "The Years of the Locust," by Miss Erdman, won the Dodd-Mead Red-book prize. It was a family book club selection and Literary Guild alternate.

Two earlier books by the erstwhile Panhandle author are, "Separate Star" and "Fair is the Morning." They are companion books concerning the teaching profession. The author is an instructor in English and creative writing at West Texas State College here and also at Amarillo Center.

Check Is Made for Additional Traffic Lights in Canyon

Five men from the State Highway Department checked traffic Monday and Tuesday in Canyon for additional traffic lights.

The check was made for 11 consecutive hours Monday on traffic at Second and Eighth Avenues on Highway 87. Tuesday the check was made at 15th and 16th Street intersections and Fourth Avenue.

Those who made the check will make their report to the district office of the State Highway Department in Amarillo. This office will report to the Highway Department in Austin, which will determine whether or not Canyon should have the four additional traffic lights.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Adcock and Nancy spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting in the J. T. Sykes' home at Siloam Springs, Arkansas.

Mary Frances Colwell of Eunice, New Mexico, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Colwell.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Texas Democrats Will Get Another Kick in the Pants

President Truman says that he will give Texas another kick in the pants when the Democratic platform is written next year. He is going to demand that a strong Civil Rights platform be written into the running platform of the party. Naturally no one expects the party to stand upon the platform which is handed to its candidates, yet let it be remembered that this is the second time that Truman has made such a demand. If re-elected Truman will declare in no uncertain terms that he has a mandate from the people to carry out the platform demands.

Truman will not only demand that the school children of Texas have billions of dollars worth of oil stolen from them by the federal government, but he will insist upon the entire so-called civil rights program, including the wholly unfair employment plank which has caused such a furor in the South.

Governor Shivers asked what the Democratic party of Texas was "Loyal to," when they held their famous breakfast in Austin to boost the re-election of Truman.

Of course the Governor knew what this group of New Dealers stood for—the perpetuation of themselves in office regardless of who the candidate might be, or what he stood for.

Just keep the facts in mind. If Truman is re-elected he will have a right to demand that the whole platform be adopted, including socialized medicine.

It would seem that the example of broke England is not enough. Truman is breaking America as fast as he can, by refusing to reduce the expense of government, and to spend money wherever he and his free spenders think best.

Truman is so certain that he can beat any Republican that he is willing to give the Democrats of Texas another swift kick in the pants, regardless of the results.

Political Writer Thinks the Voters Made a Mistake

A political writer was rather dejected the other day because the people of Texas did not see fit and proper to follow the advice of the legislature and rejected all but one of the five amendments.

So far as we are concerned, we believe there are more brains outside the legislature than are to be found among the membership. Therefore, because the legislature proposes constitutional changes in our government is no sign that the proposed changes will be good for the state or for the people.

What we do object to is the government by minorities. Only a few voters take the time to vote on constitutional amendments. The voters are more interested in electing personalities than they are in supporting measures.

If all voters were forced to go to the polls, we would still have the rule by minorities—the minority who forced the majority to go and support the measures which they proposed. We don't like the idea of the voters rejecting constitutional amendments just because they are in favor of rejecting all such proposals, but on the other hand we are not in favor of the voters blindly walking up to the polls and voting for each and every amendment any more than we appreciate the attitude of many voters in Texas of supporting the Democratic candidate simply because he is labeled a Democrat.

It is time for the legislature to submit the issue of a constitutional convention which would rewrite the old, worn-out document, rather than attempt further patchwork.

Austin Publisher Is a Poor Sport on Prevailing Issues

The publisher of a little political sheet down in Austin has at last had his eyes half way opened. He has found out that there is such a thing as inflation and high prices.

This newspaper writer declares that the demand of various utilities for increased rates is entirely unjust and uncalled for. Yet, he knows that it was his crowd which caused the increase in publishing prices and the increased cost of every other commodity.

This Austin fellow says that the big companies are taking advantage of the situation and cussing the new dealers. He is right about the cussing part, as it is a well known fact that every economist in the nation told the White House from the beginning that we would have inflation unless ceilings were clamped hard on labor and raw materials, both of which were allowed to go free.

It is a very poor sport who refuses to shallow the results of his own errors, and the crowd with which he runs. Commodity prices could have been held in check with firm ceilings on all phases of our business and economic life. As the situation now stands, no one knows from day to day what he is going to be forced to pay for labor or for commodities come the morning. There is not a single item in America today which is selling at a price which brings an exorbitant revenue to the one who charges it. As a matter of fact all prices are running behind this increased cost of production.

Why? Simply because the White House refused to act when this spiral of inflation started, and it looks now like it was too late for action.

Governor Allan Shivers Will Come to Canyon in January

Governor Shivers is coming to Canyon. A banquet will be spread in his honor at the College Cafeteria, which every citizen of Canyon will wish to enjoy.

The Governor has been urged by many persons to run for the United States Senate against Senator Tom Connally in 1952. On the other hand he has been urged by others to seek re-election to his present office. So far he has kept his political plans to himself. He is looking over the field, no doubt, and will decide at the proper moment which campaign he will enter. One thing is certain, Shivers will be a candidate for one of these offices.

The people of Canyon feel highly honored that he is coming here, not to talk politics but to talk to the people of Canyon in a friendly fashion. The occasion will be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and this is the time when all those who have not been affiliated with the Chamber in past years should sign up for the coming year's work.

Senator Connally Is Stronger With Voters Than Ever Before

Senator Tom Connally was in Amarillo for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. He took occasion to again state his stand on national and international problems.

He denied that he was the tool of President Truman, and made the wise remark, "You elected him." Yes, sir, Connally said a mouthful when he made this declaration.

The people of the United States have little cause for criticism of the White House just so long as they continue supporting such men as Truman.

The tide has definitely changed in Texas. A few short months ago Connally would have been defeated for re-election. Today he is stronger than he has been in years. He has taken a definite stand against the corruption of the Truman administration and the platform on which Truman intends to run for re-election in 1952.

Ratliff Selected Player of Week

Bob Ratliff, the red-hot "Red dog" of the Canyon Eagles got the nod last week as the News-Globe AA "player of the week." In a story that carried the by-line of Dick Kranz, well known Amarillo sports writer, some of the high points in Ratliff's last season of high school football were brought to light.

Each week during the football season the News-Globe has been selecting a boy as the high school player of the week. Many of the names that have appeared in the "player of the week" slot will begin college football next fall.

Selection of Ratliff as the high school "player of the week" came after the high school gridiron for an entire season had been blazed for an excellent record. Throughout the entire season Ratliff kept his gridiron technique at a keen edge of sharpness. "This season he was one of the best backs in the Panhandle area," says Kranz in his story which names Ratliff as the high school "player of the week."

As the season drew to a close and the threat of Big Bob Ratliff received more and more publicity, the Eagles' opposition began trying to smother the big red haired half-back. Even when they sent as many as three men after Ratliff he still chugged along for several yards gain. When the opposition became tired Ratliff turned on the steam to really roll up yardage.

It was this drive, power and terrific stamina which helped the Eagles tie-up the district with Tulsa, and also win the honor of being named high school player of the week by the famous News-Globe sports writer.

Lion Chief Praises Canyon Club in Visit Wednesday

Last week the Canyon Lions played host to District Governor Boyd Meador. They got their weekly meeting started off with a number of songs led by Houston Bright while Mrs. Houston Bright played the piano. After the spirited song-session the Lions settled down to a delicious pre-holiday turkey dinner.

Boyd Meador concerned the International Lions' organization and the good it is rendering. He talked of the crippled children's camp which was first supported by the Kerrville Lions and is now the number one project for the Lions of Texas. Governor Meador quoted the Lions' code of ethics and stressed the importance of each individual Lion member keeping this code of ethics.

After his speech the district Lion Governor was given a hat by the Canyon Lions. Presentation was made by Lion Wendell Cain. There was also an announcement of December 6th Lion barbecue in Amarillo. The national president of the Lions will be present. Each and every member of the local club was invited to hear the address which will be made by the International Lion President Nutter.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Houston Bright, the Lions welcomed three visitors; they were, Roy Joe Stevens, F. E. Jones and Warren Johnson. A make-up party consisting of three members voted to visit Lion Secretary R. B. Allen who was a patient in Neblett Hospital at the time.

Letters To Santa . . .

Dear Santa Claus,

I like you very much. It is nice to know that there is a real Santa Claus. I am happy and proud that you can bring us the things we want and we need. I am always thankful on Christmas. The only thing I can have and want is a bike. I don't want a red bike or a black one or any other color except a blue bike for girls. We have a little pup, he isn't over 4 months old, but every morning he plays with my daddy before he goes to work and plays with us before we go to school. I sure do love you. Your one Santa Claus I'll never forget. It is a lot of fun to have a Santa Claus. I would like to have you here every day. I am thankful you can come on Christmas night and bring us the things we want and we need, because you are the best Santa Claus that ever came here. I want you to come here on Christmas night.

My Love to you.

Writer Tells Effect Atom Bombs Might Have on Civilians

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—What happens to the morale of the people after their city has been bombed by enemy planes? How do they adjust to threats of new attacks?

These are some of the questions answered in a survey of civilian reactions to air attacks in Europe and Japan, and now published in a book, "Air War and Emotional Stress." The author is Irving L. Janis, Associate Professor of Psychology at Yale University, who prepared the study under the sponsorship of the Rand Corporation as part of its program for the U. S. Air Force.

One purpose of the survey was to document the psychological aspects of modern war to use in case of possible atomic bombing of American cities. Here are some of the conclusions presented in the survey:

1. A light bombing may actually improve morale of those persons who were "remote-misses" but not "near-misses" of the bombing. These persons tend to replace their old fears with optimism and confidence.

2. These same persons will show increased capacity to withstand the emotional stress of subsequent air raids if they have been exposed to a series of "remote-miss" bombings. This was the case in England during World War II.

3. After the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, researchers found that "in general the amount of defeatism... was less than in other cities." The comparatively high morale of the survivors is attributed to little heavy bombing by B-29's prior to the atom bombing.

4. "Apparently the A-bomb attacks produced no greater drop in morale... than would be expected from a single heavy raid... carried out by B-29's against other Japanese cities," the survey points out.

5. Both in England and in Germany there was a rise in juvenile delinquency and in looting following an air raid, but neither reached alarming proportions. There was a slight rise in suicides in Germany after an air attack but the survey points out that the increase was not statistically significant."

Bike Rider Takes Dare; Crashes into Restaurant

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio—A motorcycle rider took a dare here and made like a bull in a china shop, crashing his vehicle through the front door of the Lucky Shoe restaurant, damaging furniture and injuring a waitress.

Police said Robert Nichols, New Boston, Ohio, roared through the restaurant so fast he burned tracks in the floor, knocked over chairs and tables, broke the front of the juke box and crashed through the rear door. The rider also upset the table where a waitress was eating. She suffered cuts and a possible shoulder fracture.

Castor Bean Acreage Upped As Industries Cry for Oil

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Strong men flinch no less than small boys over castor oil.

Little Johnny recoils, as always, from that "mild yet nauseous" taste. Captains of industry in a nation geared to a military economy fret because they cannot readily obtain as much of the slippery stuff as they need.

So they are doing things about it. First, the Department of Agriculture is operating a castor-bean program calling for 80,000 acres of planting in 1951. This compares with 9,000 acres harvested in 1950, and even less in other recent years.

Second, the Government is restricting use of castor oil in many lines of manufacture in order to make more of it available for direct and indirect military duties. Castor oil for Johnny and all other medicinal purposes continues unrestricted. Nowadays, it is only a tithe of the total consumed.

The ninefold acreage increase might be even greater if it were not for the limited amount of domestic, "educated" seeds adapted to harvesting by machine. Imported varieties of the castor-oil plant bear pods which dehisce—pop open and scatter their beans—thus requiring manual harvesting too costly on U. S. farms.

Glass Has Served World In Ancient, Modern Ages

CORNING, N. Y. — Man-made glass, its beginnings unknown, dates from long before the Pyramids. In Corning, N. Y., late in May, a new museum and library was opened to the public. It brings together the most ancient and most modern ways the world has been served by glass.

Beside a tiny blue Egyptian vase shaped nearly 4,000 years ago stands a duplicate of the great 200-inch Hale telescope disc cast for Mount Palomar Observatory in California—the largest piece of glass ever made by man. Smaller discs were made at Corning for the wide-angle Big Schmidt telescope, with which the National Geographic Society and California Institute of Technology are surveying the universe out to 350 million light years.

With decline of supply, 45-cent cotton price is forecast.

Only a Rose, and how we love it! Yet it is the commonest of flowers. It grows in every country, along every roadway under the sun. Every nation appreciates it. Perhaps it is like the sunshine...the spring showers or the pearly dewdrops on its petals; all the more meaningful because so universal. God made the Rose.

Children carry them for their favorite teacher. Lovers weight them down with deep and intense affection for their beloved. Mature home lovers are brightened by their fragrance and loveliness. The hours of sorrow are lightened and sanctified by the silent ministry of friends who find no other expression of sympathy quite so satisfactory. Thank God for the simple wayside wild rose. Thank Him for all the patented varieties so much sought after throughout the land. His rose by any other name would smell just as sweet. It is God's Rose.

Can we not make the humble rose even more symbolic and glorious? Let the crystal purity of her white petals symbolize life everlasting. May she speak in reverent words of devotion, and love and God as she illumines His sacred pulpits all over the world. May she not testify to the omnipotence of God and may her sacred and significant voice be that of Him calling His children to worship. God made the Rose!

CHRISTMAS CAMELIA

By John Scott Douglas

STENOGRAPHERS hovered around as Marta Manning unwrapped the package that had just reached the law offices. There were startled gasps of admiration when the paper fell away, revealing a potted camelia. Large and pure white, except for crimson-touched petals, its heart was filled with delicate golden stamens.

"Oh, how beautiful!" Tessie gasped. "Who sent it, Martha?"

"My boy friend," Marta said, her tone warm with happiness.

"I didn't know camelias bloomed in time for Christmas," said Bess. "The Dai Kaugura does," said Marta. "But it's all crimson. This must be a new hybrid that Colby Blake stocked for the Christmas trade."

Could Colby have developed it himself? she wondered. She remembered the day, when he had been showing her around his nursery, that she started to enter a small, new lath house at the back. "Don't go in there, Marta!" And then he'd been embarrassed as only a big, redheaded outdoor man can be embarrassed by his own rudeness. "Forgive me for speaking so sharply, darling. You'll understand, some day."

In the two years since then, he'd never explained his strange words. It was but one of the things that had marred a more perfect understanding. The many broken dates were another. Engagements he could not keep because a truckload of plants must suddenly be delivered, or a customer must be seen about the laying out of a new garden.

"For you, Marta," said the switchboard girl. The girls dispersed as she picked up the phone. She heard Colby's voice.

"I feel terribly to beg off on another date, darling. But Roberts sprained his back lifting a tubbed tree, and had to go home. About twenty customers are coming in to pick up Christmas plants this evening, and someone must be here. Let me explain about that camelia—"

SICK WITH disappointment, she said, "Never mind," and hung up. Tears pricked her eyes. Wasn't she ever as important as a customer?

"Garra! Ladd wants you to take a letter," said the switchboard girl. Any of the other girls would have gone into a tizzy if he'd suggested a date. Only Marta had had the chance to refuse him, not once but many times. For to her, he wasn't quite real.

Now, with a confident smile, he dictated: "To do the town on Christmas Eve with a lovely young blonde like you would make this my most wonderful Christmas. Will you say, 'Yes?' Devotedly, Garra! Ladd."

"To whom shall I address it?" asked Marta.

"To Miss Marta Manning."

Her cheeks grew warm. On the point of refusal, she remembered the broken date. "I'd be glad to, Mr. Ladd."

That evening, on her way home to dress, she stopped at a nursery to buy a small tree for her apartment. The tree, she recalled with a pang of disappointment, that Colby had promised to bring when he called. A woman loaded with bundles was leaving the nursery with a plant identical to the one Marta had received that morning.

"Isn't it lovely?" the woman asked, noticing Marta's glance. "It's the new hybrid developed by the Blake nursery." And she told Marta its name.

Marta stood stunned when the woman left. Then, abruptly, she turned back to her car, thinking, "I can call Garra! Ladd later."

She found Colby wrapping red paper around a pot holding one of the new Christmas camelias.

"Can you forgive me, Colby?" she asked humbly. "I'll help wait on customers so we can be together Christmas Eve. You've made me so proud and happy."

"It was the only name for a flower so beautiful, darling."

She felt a touch of awe as she stared at the camelia he was wrapping. How like Colby to express his love by naming it the Marta Manning!

NO PLACE FOR A LADY

It was the first variety performance an elderly woman had ever seen, and she was particularly excited over the feats of the illusionist. But when he covered a newspaper with a heavy flannel cloth and read the print through it she grew a little nervous. He then doubled the cloth and again read the letters accurately.

This was more than she could stand and, rising in her seat, she said: "I'm goin' home. This ain't no place for a lady in a thin calico dress!"

CIVIL SERVICE

The Civil Service reports that 335 Government employees had been dismissed for security reasons since the Federal loyalty program was started four years ago. A total of 16,337 cases have been investigated by the FBI, the Office of Naval Intelligence and the Civil Service Commission. Of that number, 1,848 workers resigned while under investigation and another 1,666 persons quit while their cases were awaiting study by the departmental loyalty boards.

A FREAK

The soldier was reading a letter from his wife, and didn't seem too pleased about it.

"What's the matter?" asked his chum. "Is there trouble at home?"

"Well, not exactly," replied the soldier, "but we've got a freak in the family. It says here, 'You won't know Willie when you come back; he's grown another foot.'"

That's where we come in.

If you bring your equipment to us at regular intervals, our mechanics will catch the little things that go wrong with trucks before they become a major breakdown.

In so doing, you're being thrifty three ways. You (1) cut down the possibility of costly repairs, (2) get better performance with less "down time" and (3) get more years of service from the trucks you now own.

Vocational Talk On Carnations Is Given at Rotary

"The Divine Flower" was the subject of a motion picture shown at the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday by H. R. Fulton, Jr.

Denver is the largest carnation producing area in the world, stated Mr. Fulton. The climate, water and soil join to make this area the great carnation center.

The motion picture on "The Divine Flower" showed the methods used in production, the handling of the flower and the means of transportation, and the final disposition of the flowers in the homes of America.

The carnation and rose are the best known flowers among fanciers and their sale in greenhouses are about the same, stated Mr. Fulton.

Rubio Circle Has Mexican Supper

The Rubio Circle auxiliary to the W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church met for their mission book, "Pilgrimage to Spain" at the Calvary Baptist Chapel Tuesday, November 20.

Mrs. T. H. Knighton, State Approved W. M. U. worker, presented the book in a most interesting manner. After the first half of the book had been studied Mrs. Marvin McBroom, mission chairman, led the group to the supper table. After finding their names written on place cards of Mexican hats, the women were seated.

The table was laid with gunny sack cloths and the centerpiece was composed of flags of all countries, surrounding a donkey lamp. Standing by the lamp was a Mexican Senora and her Senor. The table was lighted with kerosene lamps.

Entertainment during the supper hour was furnished by Mary Garver and Melvin Cunningham, who played guitar selections, and Nancy Bolton accompanied Frances and Janelle Cunningham who sang Spanish choruses.

Mrs. Russel Thompson gave the devotional, "The Evangelizing Donkey," using Romans 10: 13-16.

Enchiladas y tacos, frijoles, arroz espanol, chiles reyesnes, and pralines were served to Mesdames R. C. Campsey, Doris Gillham, Fay Hand, H. H. Hand, Charlie Huffines, Ray Hawkins, Charlie Pruitt, Marvin McBroom, Ben Priddy, W. T. Reynolds, L. C. Ruthart, Russel Thompson, J. C. Newton, Tom Watson, A. M. Cunningham, and F. D. Brown.

Visitors for this delightful occasion were Mrs. Cunningham's mother, Mrs. W. S. Wharton of Chickasha, Okla., Mrs. Buel Wharton of Amarillo, Mrs. Harry Ford, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, Mrs. Free, and Mrs. Price.

The women re-assembled in the auditorium where Mrs. Knighton completed the book. The Rubio Circle expresses its thanks to Anita Martinez for her help in preparing the "chiles reyesnes."

Diabetes Took the Lives of 887 in Texas Last Year

Diabetes, a disease for which modern medicine can do much, took a toll of 887 lives in Texas during the past year, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While the communicable diseases such as typhoid fever, malaria, diphtheria and smallpox are causing a decreasing number of deaths each year in the State, diabetes is now taking an appalling number of human lives, especially in the middle-aged group," Dr. Cox said.

"Until recent years diabetes was not noted as a major health problem but it became accepted as such in direct ratio to the development of medical laboratory procedures, which made the disease more easily diagnosed.

"Diabetes is generally recognized as a class disease. It seems to attack the white collar class of indoor men and women more frequently than it does the outdoor person whose work is more vigorous and calls for more exercise. Whatever the actual cause of the disease may be, vocational and economic conditions are factors, since it seems a fact that those who do not indulge in luxurious living and whose occupation calls for manual labor are not frequently affected. Simple living, wholesome diets, sufficient exercise and sleep are factors in the prevention of diabetes. An annual physical examination, with a blood or urine analysis, is important to determine whether or not the disease is present in the middle age group."

Thanksgiving holiday guests in the Burney Slack home were Bryce Slack, who is a student at Baylor University in Waco, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hill and family of Wichita, Kansas. Mr. Hill is a brother of Mrs. Slack.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Walsh, Jr. of Kansas City, Missouri, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Canyon visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Walsh, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Higdon and daughters spent Thanksgiving in the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Haynes of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Gaume of Wichita, Kansas, spent Thanksgiving in the home of their daughter, Miss Matilda Gaume.

Miners Dig Buffs 13 to 6 in Final Season Game in Amarillo Stadium

The Buffaloes dropped their seventh game of the season Saturday in a hard fought gridiron tilt with the Texas Western Miners. The game, which spelled the end of the 1951 season for the Buffaloes, ended 13-6 in favor of the Miners.

The Buffaloes outplayed the Orediggers both in passes and ground gains. A number of times the Buffs had the ball in scoring position, but just couldn't seem to push it on in to the end zone for a score. They went beyond the enemy 10-yard stripe twice during the first quarter. It was Bobby Clark who tallied the one and only TD for West Texas State.

The strength of Ed Ammons shoved the visiting Miners ahead of the Buffs during the first half with an extra point kick after Gerald Campbell had taken a punt on his 30 yard line and ran it for a TD. Then in the final period of play the Miners went on over for another touchdown, but failed to convert, and the score ended at 6 for the Buffaloes and 13 for the Miners.

As the curtain fell on the 1951 season for the Buffaloes there was a hint of future gridiron glories. Next year will see the return of such men as Leon Evans, a freshman this year, Bobby Clark, who will be a senior next year. Orville Copeland and red-haired Robert Welch will return next year as sophomores. With these and others coming up next year, Frank Kimbrough can look forward to a great many victories in the next gridiron season.

SOCIAL SECURITY

An estimated 4,600,000 self-employed persons have been reminded by Arthur J. Altmeyer, commissioner for Social Security, that they are included in Social Security coverage and are required to pay a Social Security tax. The first report on self-employment earnings will be due in 1952, covering net earnings for self-employment netting $400 or more in 1951. The tax is two and a half per cent of net earnings up to $3,600.

Purple in color and of special-delivery size, the stamp will have an initial printing of 110,000,000. It depicts General Washington evacuating his troops from the city.

CAR FREEZE

The Government has imposed a virtual "freeze," effective February 1, on the introduction of new models by the automobile industry and manufacturers of other major consumer durable goods. The action came in the form of orders reserving machine tools almost completely for military and defense-support production, which would bar retooling by civilian manufacturers of cars, washing machines, refrigerators and similar appliances.

CLASSROOMS

There is a need in this country for more than 600,000 classrooms to provide for a student population that is expected to increase by 8,000,000 by 1960, according to the Federal office of Education.

Wide Publicity Given Program Last Christmas

As the Yuletide holidays draw near more and more attention is being focused on Canyon because of an article from the Community Recreation Program's annual report which was reprinted in the November issue of 'Recreation.'

Several magazines have asked permission to use the article and many communities have written or telephoned for complete particulars and also asked permission to copy the idea in their own community. The popularity of the Christmas Program, which consisted of a system whereby children could call Santa Claus, has spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans.

A letter was received from Vallejo, California, asking for the particulars of the program and also permission to use it in their community. More recently a telephone call was received from Milton Ansel of New York.

Mr. Ansel showed a great deal of interest in the entire community. He wanted to know whether or not the program was to be repeated again this year. He asked the attitude of the telephone operators toward the program. He even wanted to know the number of potential callers in Canyon.

According to the report Mr. Ansel is a very pleasant fellow who desired to know what kind of a town Canyon is and he also asked about the originality of the Christmas Program.

A letter was also received from Good Housekeeping Magazine. This magazine was interested in the article for the Children's section. There has been no confirmation from the Community Recreation Program about the Christmas program being repeated again this year. There is a great deal of work and preparation involved before such a program becomes a reality.

NET FARM INCOME

While 1952 is expected to bring more jobs and higher consumer incomes, no general income boost is expected for the farmers, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Farmers' cash income may rise next year, but production costs will rise too, so that the net income of farmers will be about the same as this year.

AIR FORCE

Due to budget cuts, the Air Force is reducing "greatly" and, in some cases, eliminating entirely its public-information offices in the field. Congress voted about $10,000,000 for all public relations of the Department of Defense, as against a requested appropriation of $15,000,000.

Dimmitt Defeats Canadian for Bi-District Crown

The Dimmitt Bobcats won their tenth straight gridiron victory in Buffalo Stadium Thursday afternoon. The Bobcats clawed out a 28 to 7 victory over the Canadian Wildcats for the bi-district championship. Their next game, for the regional championship, will be played with the Abernathy Antelopes this week.

The Bobcats held the Wildcats to less than 10 yards gain for each play. The Wildcat line leaked like a sieve and Tom Schaefer, 220-pound Wildcat fullback, was held to no score during the entire game. During 22 trips with the ball he managed to collect 84 yards of territory. The Dimmitt line held like a brick wall. There was the power of such players as James Dobbs, Milton Bagwell, Donald Wright and Marvin Axe determinedly holding the line.

The outstanding player of the game was Glenn Brown, 150-pound Dimmitt halfback. He consistently carried the ball for yardage. The Canadian Wildcats played a spirited game and racked up the first TD by ground plays down the field, but lost out in the stretch. It was their first loss of the season.

The last touchdown of the game for Dimmitt was a pass play to Edgar Dennis who took the ball on the 5 and stepped over for the TD. In the fourth quarter of play Dimmitt kicked down to the 4 yard line where it was picked up and the Wildcats were caught on the 2-yard line. On the next play the Wildcats attempted to run the ball and were downed behind the goal line for a safety.

The game was hard-fought and cleanly-played with the first half ending without a single penalty against either team. The win for the Dimmitt Bobcats gives them the bi-district championship and they will meet the Abernathy Antelopes, probably at Plainview, for the regional crown. The Abernathy team will go into the game with 11 straight victories behind them. The Dimmitt squad claims 10 straight victories.

In the first half Canadian made 5 first downs to Dimmitt's 6; 119 yards rushing to 106; 17 yards by passing to 55; Canadian had 0 in the fumble department while Dimmitt tallied 1; Canadian booted twice for 74 yards; Dimmitt, one for 48; Canadian lost 12 yards rushing and Dimmitt 4.

Second half: Canadian, 3 first downs, Dimmitt, 8; 57 yards rushing to 150; 5 yards passing to 39; Canadian passed for 62 yards while Dimmitt garnered 189; Wildcats fumbled once, and recovered one Dimmitt fumble. Canadian punted three times for 27, 28, and 67, respectively; Dimmitt punted twice for 57 and 48 yards. The Wildcats drew one penalty for 5 yards and Dimmitt Bobcats drew two for 15.

Helpful Hints for Holiday Mailing

One practice which holds up holiday mail is the purchase of stamps. Stamps for Christmas cards and letters should be purchased before the date of mailing. Any tinsel, metal, glass or mica which might rub off and damage the cancelling machine or mail handlers, should be placed in an envelope and sent as first class mail.

If the sender has a number of cards and letters, the Post Office Department points out the advantage of tying them in packages. One package for the cards and letters to be delivered in town and another package for out of town delivery. If the packages are tied up with all the stamps in the same position the process of getting them through the machine, and the way to the destination will be speeded up.

The Post Office Department also announces that folks are permitted to mark packages, 'do not open until Christmas,' and enclose such salutations as 'Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, With Best Wishes,' without having to pay first class postage of 3 cents per ounce for the package. But the public is cautioned not to enclose any form of letter except the greetings and salutations mentioned.

The postal authorities explain that this action on the part of the public is not a special favor to the Post Office Department. It is merely a means to an end which will help speed up the process of getting the extra weight of holiday mail delivered promptly and efficiently.

NEW TAX RISE?

The third in a series of hints that the Administration would seek another tax rise next year was dropped by Frederick J. Lawton, Budget Director, recently when he said that even with the new tax legislation, the Government would have a deficit of from five to eight billion dollars for the current 1951 fiscal year.

Nicholson-Hickman Vows Exchanged In West Texas State Memorial Chapel

MRS. DON HICKMAN

On Tuesday afternoon, November 20, the Memorial Chapel of West Texas State College was the scene of marriage of Miss Roberta Florine Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Nicholson of Pampa, Texas and Cpl. Donald G. Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hickman of Canyon with the Rev. J. Arnold Carlson performing the double ring ceremony.

The altar was centered with a large solid cross flanked by gold altar vases filled with white pom mums, and single gold candelabras. Large baskets of white gladioli, tied with orchid bows to match the bride's chosen colors, completed the floral arrangements.

Organist, Ruth Ann Soll, played "Theme" from Piano Concerto in B Sharp Minor, by Tchaikowsky; "Andantino" by Franck; "Prayer" from the Octette by Schubert. She accompanied Miss Dorothy Broome, who sang "Because," "Marche Nuptiale" by Ganne was played as the processional and "Recessional" by Nordman, was played as the recessional.

Attending the bride as maid-of-honor was Miss Dolores Cramb of Pampa, Texas, wearing a full length orchid gown of net over taffeta with white net fitted jacket. Her bouquet was a colonial nosegay of white pom pom mums.

Mr. Jerre Inman of Canyon was the best man. Ushers were Harrell Slack and Marvin Cornette of Canyon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Chester Nicholson. She wore a gown of white bridal satin with long fitted sleeves and fitted bodice. The bridal bouquet was a white prayer book topped with a large white orchid cascaded with Flew de Amour and showers of white satin ribbon tied with love knots.

The bride's mother wore a wine gaberdine suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a smoke grey gaberdine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of vanda orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Randall Hall. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with the maid-of-honor's bouquet. The three-tiered cake was served by Mrs. John Bell, Jr., aunt of the groom, and Miss Mary Nell Lindsey. Mrs. T. S. Stevenson, aunt of the groom, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Sara Jo Hickman secured names at the guest book.

The bride traveled in a purple velvet suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.

After mid-December the couple will be at home in Biloxi, Miss.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were grandparents of the

Mutual Defense Gives Skills, Arms to Allies

KANSAS CITY — Training and weapons for the soldiers of 18 other free nations are being provided by the United States Army at installations here and abroad.

The military "know-how" and "wherewithal" furnished the land forces of these friendly foreign nations represents the Army's contribution to the Mutual Defense Assistance Program.

Nearly 2,000 foreign nationals were received for training by the Army during the first 21 months of MDAP.

In the same period, the Army supplied the bulk of more than 1,000,000 (M) tons of military equipment which was shipped to MDAP-member nations.

Training Important

While delivery of 4,400 tanks and other combat vehicles, 2,900 pieces of artillery, and more than 18,000 general purpose vehicles is an important phase of the Army's MDAP role, the training of key officers and enlisted personnel to properly care for and maintain the equipment at its destination has even more far-reaching importance.

The foreign trainees, as instructors upon return to their own countries, will make possible full utilization of all military weapons—those supplied by the United States as well as those furnished by each nation to itself in the MDAP military production plan.

In effect, the trainees form the nucleus of a 20th century crusade for democracy.

To aid in the achievement of that end, the Army has placed the foreign soldiers into its regular training system in such a manner that they receive instruction in the latest technical knowledge of arms and equipment along with a liberal insight into the American way of living.

Work Together

Courses were made available at more than 20 Army schools in this country and Western Germany in order that foreign nationals would receive their instruction alongside American soldiers. Uniforms are the only difference as they live and learn together.

Varying in length from two weeks to 11 months, the courses include such technical and administrative training as are required for ordnance, engineer, signal, medical, quartermaster, transportation, finance, adjutant general, and chaplain's corps work.

There is similar instruction in the service schools, such as artillery, infantry, armor and provost marshal courses, and instruction also is offered at the Command and General Staff School at Leavenworth, Kansas.

The training is given in the classroom, workshop or field. It is provided on a strict instructor-pupil basis, with no regard to rank or nationality, uniform or speech differences.

During off-duty hours, foreign nationals are encouraged to participate in sports and other forms of recreation and relaxation on an equal basis with the Army students in the schools.

Blood Supplies in Korea Are Shrinking, Says General

KANSAS CITY—Life-saving blood stocks — vital for treatment of wounded soldiers—have been seriously depleted by 14 months of fighting in Korea, according to Major General George E. Armstrong, the Army Surgeon General.

General Armstrong, returned from the combat zone and disclosed that more than 100,000 pints of whole blood and the equivalent of 500,000 pints of blood plasma had been used by the Army since the conflict began.

"The use of this great amount of whole blood and blood plasma in Korea has seriously depleted our stocks," he said. "It has placed a serious burden on existing supplies."

General Armstrong called on Americans everywhere to continue to donate blood in order that stocks could be built up to a reasonably safe level.

"The continued donation of blood is highly essential, not only to meet the present needs of men in the Armed Forces but to provide adequate blood plasma for stockpiling in the event of further large-scale fighting in Korea or a civilian disaster of major importance," he said.

Dutch Patrol Discovers Odd Village of Primitive Natives

DARWIN.—A Dutch patrol deep into the New Guinea jungles has found a completely walled-in village inhabited by primitive tribesmen, who had never before been seen by man.

The discovery was reported by the chief justice of New Zealand, Dr. Bernard Damen. The Dutch official said that the village had been walled-in against hostile tribesmen and the patrol had to climb singly through a small hole in the wall to get inside. The natives advanced with drawn spears, he said, but were won over to friendship by the members of the patrol.

By Nancy Plyler

THE SMALL BOY pressed his face closer to the window. Outside the snow lay a white blanket over the community, and darkness had drawn its curtain upon the day's activities. Johnny had been standing there since dinner.

His mother and father sat nearby. "He hardly touched his dinner!" his mother explained.

"It's too bad! He was very fond of that dog," his father said seriously.

"I'm so sorry this happened. It's just two weeks until Christmas and there's so much to do. Scouring the neighborhood for the dog at this time will interfere with our other plans," the mother said.

While they were talking, the doorbell rang. The wife went to answer it and found two teen-age boys on the porch.

"Yes?" the wife questioned.

The boys seemed to be out of breath from running. "Mrs. Rice, we saw two men take your dog into their car. They drove away with him," one of the boys explained. "What? When?" the wife was beside herself.

"Did Santa Claus send him back to me, Mommy?" was all he asked.

"About two hours ago. We were taking the groceries to Mrs. Jane; we couldn't turn back to tell you. Besides the car was gone before we knew what had happened. I think we'd know them if we saw them again," the boys finished.

"Don, will you come here?" Mrs. Rice called to her husband. "Now, will you please tell my husband what you have just told me?" she turned to the boys.

They reiterated the same facts to Mr. Porter.

His first statement was, "Don't say anything about this to Johnny."

He questioned the boys further, thought for a time, then asked the boys if they would agree to go around the neighborhood with him to see if he could trace the men.

Agreeing to this, the two boys left with Mr. Porter.

MRS. PORTER was sitting in the living-room when Mr. Porter returned. Her eyes questioned what her lips could not say.

"No luck!" he sunk into a chair. "I didn't really think there would be any use to go out and look for them. There just wasn't anything else to do. Poor kid! With Christmas coming on and everything," Mr. Porter was very solemn.

On Christmas morning Mrs. Porter was up very early. The Christmas tree was trimmed to perfection. The wreaths were hung. The living-room was very picturesque. Johnny's stocking was hung over the mantle; it was brimming to the top. All kinds of toys that would delight the heart of a five-year-old boy were under the tree. His mother took one last look before she called to her husband to awaken Johnny.

A sleepy, tousled-haired boy crept down the steps to behold the wonders of another Christmas day. After viewing the scene, he gave one leap to the hobby-horse that waited for him. By now he was no longer sleepy, but had mustered energy to open all his gifts without any help from his parents.

And for a time Johnny seemed so engrossed in the many toys that he never mentioned about his dog. But their hopes were short-lived! For while they were planning for the day, they noticed that Johnny was watching at the window. Mr. and Mrs. Porter looked at each other and knew that they had lost in their endeavor to make Christmas Day a happy time for their boy.

When Mrs. Porter was nearly on the verge of tears, Johnny gave one scream from the window. They ran to it and looking out, saw a small white dog scurrying up the path. Mr. Porter never opened a door more gleefully and the dog dashed into the room, into the arms of his master. Johnny was laughing and crying at the same time. "Did Santa Claus send him back to me, Mommy?" was all he asked.

"Yes, dear," she whispered. "The dog either broke away; or, the spirit of Christmas must have worked in those men's hearts," Mrs. Porter smiled to her husband.

Gifts for the House Make Ideal Christmas Presents

BY EDNA MILES

IT'S a rare homemaker who will not welcome a gift for her house this Christmas, whether you choose a decorative item to add to the graciousness of daily living, or whether you select a practical present that will make chores easier during the holiday season and throughout the year.

If your Yuletide budget is a limited one, you may find helpful a suggestion by Dorothy L. Murray, a designer well-known for her creations in straw. Purchase in your local department or dime store a set of woven straw mats. They are available now at penny-bank prices. Then glorify them with sprays of holly, which you can easily snip from green felt. Berries, cut from red felt, will add a further authentic touch. Not only will you have achieved an offering that speaks for itself of your Christmas spirit, but you'll find the hostesses on your list doubly grateful for this addition to their holiday entertaining.

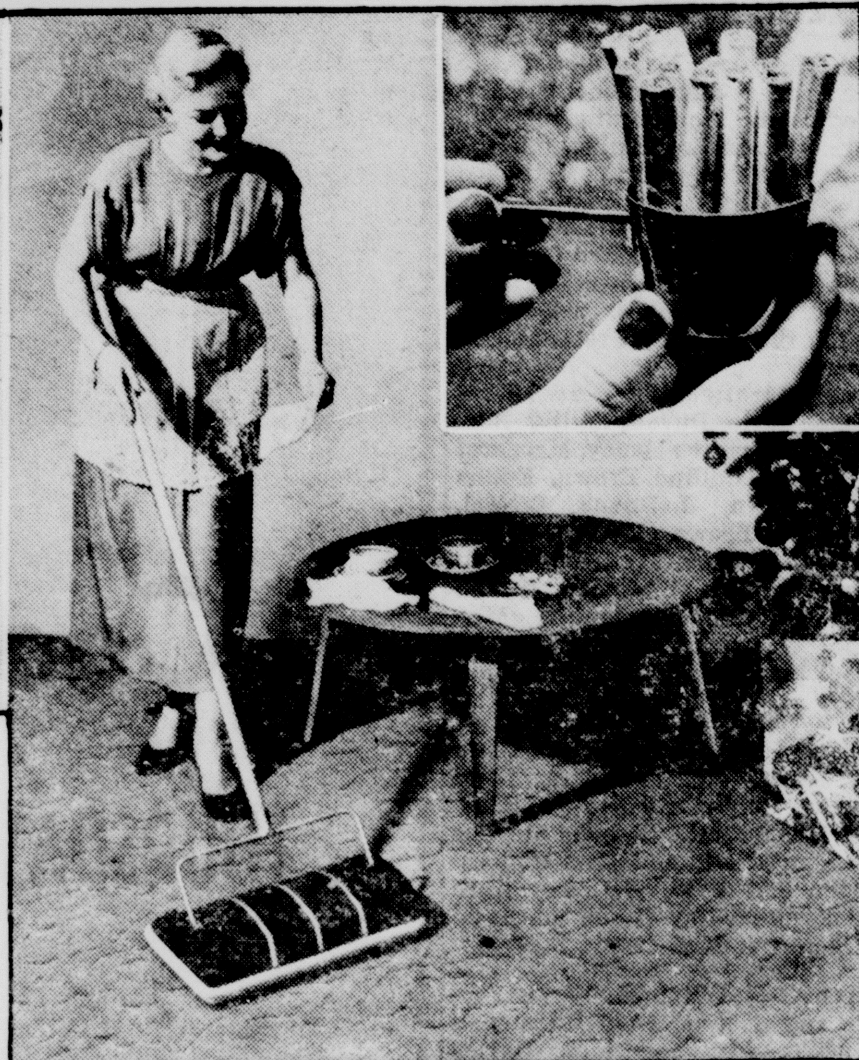

The woman whose home buzzes with social activity during the Yuletide season will welcome an aid in the inevitable clean-up. Cookie crumbs spilled by the children or drop-in guests can be dealt with quickly and cheerfully provided your thoughtfulness has supplied a mother's-helper as useful as a carpet sweeper. You may find that you, too, can face the holidays more enthusiastically if such a tool in your cleaning closet insures an easy solution to Christmas muck and litter.

For the woman who prefers a touch of glamor, even in gifts for her home, a good choice is a set of tiny tin-lined copper butter pipkins. The imaginative homemaker can find innumerable uses for these diminutive pieces other than their obvious one as servers for melted butter. After-dinner mints may be passed in them; an evening's supply of cigarettes may be set at each guest's elbow; or individual servings of special sauces may be served in them.

Christmas muck and litter, including crumbs dropped by careless guests, may be dealt with cheerfully by the woman whose holiday gifts include a modern, improved carpet sweeper for quick whisk-ups. A set of tiny butter pipkins (inset) is a gift that will add charm to any home; one that is adaptable to many uses during and after the holiday season.

BACK IN WASHINGTON: We missed the newsletter last week because I was in the District. I had a most pleasant visit and saw many people. I gave a full report to Jean and the children on my return, and it helped to restore my position in the household. You see, they were a little put out with me for going home without taking them. I wish I could have brought the entire family and stayed over until January. However, this was impossible for several reasons, to say nothing of the cost that would be involved.

The fact that Congress adjourned does not mean that everything here stops. My mail was almost hip-deep when I returned, and there was a great number of matters to be handled through the different boards, bureaus, departments and agencies. I hope to have these cleared enough to be able to return to the District before the first of the year for another visit.

THANKSGIVING: Most of the places up here observed the 22nd as Thanksgiving Day. This letter will reach you about the time you are observing the original Thanksgiving Day, that is, the last Thursday in November. Regardless of which day we observe, we could all spend the entire day and all of the night counting the many blessings that we have compared with other peoples of the world, and we would hardly touch the surface. Here in Washington there are so many things that come to your attention from other countries that you really appreciate the many things which we have to be thankful for. Last Tuesday night I was engaged in conversation with a couple who have just returned from a four-year stay in the Philippines. Space would not permit me to list the many things that they told. However, the one thing that was most impressive was the story they told me about having in germicide solutions for an hour and a half before they could be prepared for eating. They pointed out that the usual salad of raw vegetables carries with it a strong odor of the germicide solution. These folks promised to give me a complete story on many other matters, and I will try to include them later on. I asked them if they were happy to be back in the States, and the gleam in their eyes was a sufficient answer for me to know that they counted it as their number one blessing for this Thanksgiving.

BATTLE OF THE FLAGS: A Confederate flag fad is sweeping the East, and I noticed traces of it in our section on my recent visit. The novelty manufacturers are exploiting this tremendously. They are selling Confederate caps and recently have started the sale of Yankee caps. Any children will probably get GAR or Confederate uniforms for Christmas, rather than the cowboy and Indian suits that have been leading in this field. The Confederate flag is a symbol of a great people and a great cause, and it is deplorable that it should be used for commercial purposes. I have even received a Christmas card with the imprint of the Confederate flag on it and a most touching letter telling me why I should pay an. Frankly, such practices should be outrageous price for these cards, condemned by true southerners, as we have been exploited enough without having our flag dragged through the dirt by a bunch of money seekers.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN: Senator Taft has a definite inside track for the Republican nomination, and let no one be fooled about this. If he can keep his present lead until the time of the convention, his nomination is almost assured. Don't be surprised if Ike Eisenhower turns up as the Democratic nominee.

Duggan - Roof Vows Exchanged

Nuptial vows were solemnized recently in the parlor of the First Baptist Church in Amarillo for Gwen Duggan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Duggan of Canyon, and Clyde E. Roof, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Roof of Williamsport, Md.

Dr. Carl E. Bates read the double ring service. "Because," "The Rosary" and "Ave Maria" were played by Mrs. Bates as a nuptial prelude and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" was a soft accompaniment for the exchange of vows. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Baskets of white gladioli, backed by fern and flanked by candelabra, formed the decorative altar setting. Attending the bride as maid-of-honor, Miss Bernice Payne wore a blue gaberdine suit with pink leather hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Herbert Scoby was best man, and serving as ushers were Kenneth Aylsworth and Alfred N. Gree.

The bride was attired in a beige wool gaberdine suit accented with a brown leather hat trimmed in rhinestones. Her accessories were in cocoa tan and her corsage was fashioned of pink rosebuds. She carried a white Bible.

Mrs. Duggan, mother of the bride, wore a green gaberdine suit with black accessories, and Mrs. Roof, mother of the bridegroom, wore grey eyelet dress with green accessories.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Coffey entertained with a reception for the bridal party in the parlor of the church. Decorative appointments were in green and white.

The couple is at home at 1406 North Manhattan in Amarillo after a wedding trip to El Paso and Juarez, Mexico.

Captain Bill Cone was here over the Thanksgiving holidays to visit with his son and parents at the parental Henry Cone home. Captain Cone is stationed at Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Farlow returned Sunday night from Big Spring where they spent the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and son of Shamrock spent the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Pegram of Wellington spent the week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gooch.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

27 YEARS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE

If healthy growth is a blessing, then Texas can be thankful for that, among other things, at this Thanksgiving season.

I have some figures about the development of telephone service in the state since World War II. They indicate that Texas is growing faster, perhaps, than many of us realize.

W. L. Prehn, general manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, announces that the number of his company's telephones in Texas has doubled in the last six years — from 798,048 to 1,620,000. The largest number of installations was in the cities, but the greatest proportionate gain was in rural areas, where the increase was more than 500 per cent during the last six years — from 13,708 to 75,000 telephones.

In order to provide for all this expansion, Southwestern Bell upped its capital investment in plant and materials from $179,746, 330 in 1945 to $453,292,438 in 1950. Additional millions are being spent, and there is in sight no prospect for a lull. As Prehn explains:

"These expenditures are necessary if we are to keep pace with the March of Progress in Texas. The demand for telephone service shows no sign of slackening in the immediate future. Normal growth of Texas communities is continuing, and in many sections of the state this is being spurred on by the national defense program."

A spectacular project of the telephone company is the construction of a $6 million radio relay system which will be unaffected by ice storms, floods, or local weather conditions.

A series of microwave towers is being built from Kansas City to Dallas and San Antonio. Voice messages will be projected from tower to tower along this route by very high frequency radio transmission.

From the main microwave channel, a branch will be extended to Fort Worth, and be coaxial cable to Corpus Christi and Amarillo. A coaxial cable was recently placed in service between Dallas and Houston.

In addition to facilitating long distance calls, the microwave system will provide channels for network television broadcasts from such places as Hollywood, Chicago, and New York.

The Secretary of State is the official whose duty it is to keep up with corporations. He issues their charters, amends them, and dissolves them as the occasion demands and according to the law in the case.

The Secretary, John Ben Shepherd, issues periodic reports on new corporations, etc., and these are interesting for their variety.

In San Antonio, for example, there is a new Officers Country Club, whose business will be "clubs and innocent sports." This corporation has no capital stock.

And here's where Amon G. Carter, the Fort Worth publisher, is apparently getting ready for some philanthropic work. With James M. North and B. N. Honea he has organized Star Telegram Charities, Inc.

The longest name in the current list of incorporators belongs to the James E. Robinson Post 440, The American Legion, Department of Texas. This post is located at Waco.

Some of the corporations' line of activity you might guess from their names. Such as the Rinsit Corporation of Dallas, which lists its mission as manufacturing.

Others remain a mystery, so far as the secretary of state's list is concerned. Tri Drive, Inc., of Corpus Christi announces that it will deal in merchandise.

The Chamber of Commerce is still undecided as to where the new office will be located. The commissioners court ruled that the present office occupied by the Chamber of Commerce was to be used by the Red Cross. This decision put the Chamber of Commerce on the look-out for another place in which to spearhead the progress of the community.

Sheriff M. E. Cantrell demonstrated the value of the two-way radio in police cars Saturday. While deputies were bringing in a person believed to be mentally unbalanced, Cantrell kept in touch with them by radioing every few minutes to check on their progress. With the radio he was able to keep in contact with the other car and in case something had gone wrong could have been at the scene in a matter of minutes. The sheriff explained that the work car of every law enforcement officer should have a two-way radio installed.

As the last left-overs of the big Thanksgiving feast vanished folks bolstered their courage and looked ahead to the Christmas holiday. After the big meal Thanksgiving there was probably a great number of people who sighed and sought the comforts of a sofa or an easy chair. Most of the people consulted confessed that they did not eat a turkey dinner. Perhaps it's the high prices and then again it may be that old Tom Turkey is merely losing his grip on the Thanksgiving holiday out of sheer triteness. The fact is that many people are turning to various main dishes for the Thanksgiving dinner. By getting facetious we might make a funny, which will be unfunny to a certain class of people, by saying that so many people are getting the bird these days they figure they might as well eat it and save the expense of a turkey.

Heavy rain clouds umbrelling skies over the plains Saturday. They turned on light showers during the day to give the wheat farmers some of the moisture needed to get the wheat crop off to a good start. It's time the farmers of this area got a break as far as wheat is concerned. The last two crops have yielded very little. Farmers have fallen back on grain sorghums and feed stuff for a cash crop. It's still very early in the season, but it looks as though the wheat crop is getting off to a fairly good start. Perhaps we should knock on wood and keep our fingers crossed for the farmers of this area.

Last Wednesday noon West Texas College students closed their books and looked forward to a half-a-week free from school. Most of the students headed home for the holiday. Wednesday night most of the dormitories sat darkly perched about a forlorn campus. The instructors probably enjoy the freedom from students as much as the students enjoyed their freedom from the classroom. It seems that the only bad thing about holidays is that they have to end.

Buffalo Stadium echoed the cheers of a bi-district high school football game Thanksgiving day. The Dimmitt Bobcats made the fur fly in a 28 to 7 defeat over the Canadian Wildcats. This week the Bobcats will meet the Abilene Antelopes, more than likely in Plainview, for the game that will decide the regional championship. The game at Buffalo Stadium drew about 4,000 fans, perhaps the regional tilt will attract an even greater number.

Business people returned to routine duty Friday. Many confessed that it seemed like Monday because of the holiday. Then there was another football game Saturday and another holiday Sunday. As Jerry Colona would say, "short week, wasn't it?"

Christmas decorations are beginning to go up around town. The various business houses are draping gay colors inside to offset the dreary colorless tones of the short winter days on the outside. It is the season to appreciate the big easy chair, a glowing fire and a good book. You may throw in a pipe, or a cigar, and a pair of comfortable slippers while you're in the business. It's a wonderful season, if you love to remain indoors.

With the heavy mailing traffic of the Christmas holiday coming up, the post office department started seeking the cooperation of the mailing public. It's the kind of cooperation that will make it possible for the department to get the mail through more quickly and more efficiently. Special notices have been condensed to shorter forms and posted on the bulletin board in the post office. Those mailing packages can save time for themselves, as well as postal authorities, by observing these rules. The public is also reminded that postal rates on cards will go up to 2 cents January 1. The one thing that authorities really desire is for the public to mail Christmas packages early.

It won't be long until we'll be going into another year. Perhaps the passing of the old year, 1951, will erase some of the petty grudges between individuals. Those people who think they have

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: William L. McCollough Defendant, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 47th District Court in and for Randall County at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 24th day of December A. D. 1951, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 8th day of November A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 2375 on the docket of said court and styled Thelma McCollough Plaintiff, vs. William L. McCollough Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Plaintiff alleges she is a resident citizen of Randall County and that she is suing the Defendant for a divorce on the alleged grounds of cruel and harsh treatment of such nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable and that the marriage relation still exists and for a judgment dissolving the marital contract entered into on or about the 13th day of November, 1948, costs of suit and all other relief which she may be justly entitled to, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

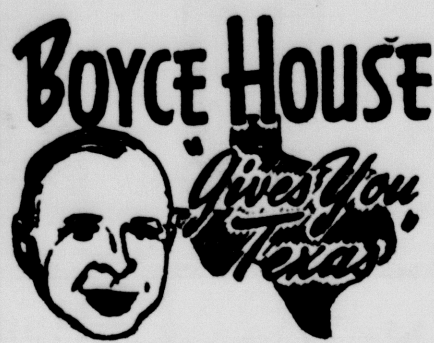

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, this 8th day of November A. D. 1951.

troubles will probably see differently when they get a good look at their new Christmas ties. According to cartoonists and gag writers the Christmas tie is the tie that blinds.

The champagne-drinking, night-clubbing, flitting from place to place, joining the Mohammedan faith and romancing with an Egyptian belly-dancer while still a married man—in short, the pattern of conduct of that rich, pampered Houstonian is an argument in favor of a 100 per cent tax on inheritances. Fortunately, he is an exception.

Two Harvard professors have completed a long and no doubt expensive study and they have come up with the breath-taking announcement that there is a definite relationship between a man's physique and his occupation.

Amazing, isn't it? But, come to think of it, I never knew of a deaf-mute becoming a pulp orator or of a midget who was a heavyweight prize-fighter.

So, if you are six feet and weigh only 120 pounds, you probably will not become a blacksmith. And if you don't have any practical sense at all, if you don't watch out you will likely become a college professor—probably at Harvard.

When I was a young fellow, two of the handsomest movie stars were J. Warren Kerrigan and Elliott Dexter. The latter was suave, distinguished and noble, but could never win the girl, who always loved Dexter's best friend. Wonder what ever happened to Kerrigan and Dexter?

Just as I parked in Ballinger, I caught sight of my friend, Editor Troy Simpson and jumped out of the car, overlooking putting a nickel in the parking meter. When I returned, there was a notice which said if I would mail the nickel within 24 hours, that would be the end of it. That's what I call a friendly spirit.

If you don't think there's euphony in words, why does everybody say "ham and eggs" instead of "eggs and ham"?

SCOTCH HUMOR

An American visiting England decided it would be fun to go for a walking tour in Scotland at Christmas.

For once winter was living up to its name. The snow was coming down hard, and the American was struggling along what had once been a village lane. It was not long before he was completely lost.

Fortunately, however, he came up with an old Scot.
"Say, friend," began the American, "I guess I'm lost."
"Is there a reward out for ye?" asked the Scot cautiously.
"Nope," said the American shortly. "What does that matter?"
"Weel," came the slow reply, "ye're still lost."

REASON ENOUGH

Everyone is familiar with the European's fondness for American cigarettes. Recently an American official was traveling in Europe, and he was on an extremely slow train. After leaving one town, this train proceeded with many stops and starts toward its destination. Then after making an uninterrupted journey of about an hour, the train stopped in the middle of a dreary field of gray rocks. The American got up from his seat and angrily said to the conductor: "Well, what have you stopped this time for?"

"I'm sorry, sir," was the reply, "but the engineer dropped his cigarette."

CLINCHER

The acme of understatement was reached at a dinner party at which a Southern gentleman was fighting the Civil War all over again. Finally he concluded his arguments with this undebatable point: "If the Confederacy, Suh, had had the atomic bomb, we would have won the war between the States."

FAVORITE "HYMN"

Teacher asked all the children to write down the name of their favorite hymn.

Everyone wrote except little Mary.

"Come on, Mary, write it down," coaxed the teacher.

So little Mary blushing wrote, "Johnny Brown."

LAMB, MUTTON, VEAL

The Office of Price Stabilization has issued new regulations, one of which sets dollar and cents ceilings for wholesale lamb, yearling lamb and mutton, the effect of which is expected to result in higher prices in most butcher shops for these meats.

Fire Prevention and Civil Defense Go Hand in Hand

Fire prevention is an important part of civil defense. If an enemy attacks this country, his bombs, whether they be atomic, high explosive, or incendiary, will cause more damage by fire than they will by blast. Hence, anything done to make it hard for fires to start is a step towards preparing your community to protect itself if war comes.

The majority of all fires start in trashpiles, rubbish, or stored odds and ends that accumulate around the house. Closets, attics, and cellars are the main source of home fires, and plain ordinary good housekeeping is a strong line of defense against them.

Clean out your storage places. You will be surprised at how many burnable odds and ends are really useless to you. Don't let them make your home a fire hazard. Get rid of them. If local welfare agencies can't use them, call the junk man.

Don't stop when you've cleared out the inside of your house. Go after rubbish in your back yard, in alleys and in vacant lots near your home. Collect the rubbish and burn it. Don't leave it around to burn if an enemy bombs your city. Be sure to burn rubbish in metal containers.

Take a look at your electrical system. Buy new plugs and cords if yours are worn. Get advice from an electrician if your fuses blow frequently. They may be dangerously overloaded. His advice may prevent a bad fire.

Every winter costly fires are started by faulty furnaces, stoves, and other heating plants. Some result from too much soot in chimneys. Others are caused by rusted or cracked pipes and fittings. Look over your heating system now. If your chimney needs it, clean it out. If the furnace pipes and connections are cracked and rusted, replace them.

Teach your family not to put magazines, papers, or clothing on radiators or near open flames. Don't hang flimsy curtains near your kitchen stove. Don't allow lamp shades to come in contact with light bulbs. Remember that such things don't have to touch flame to burn. They will catch fire simply because they are too close to the heat for too long.

Gasoline, benzene, naphtha, and similar fluids should never be used indoors. When mixed with air, their vapors can be ignited by the spark of a light switch or an electric fan, or the tiny flame of a pilot light. Keep such fluids in tightly closed metal containers outside your home.

And remember: oil-soaked rags, especially rags that have been used to spread quick-drying liquids such as turpentine, paint thinners, and some furniture polishes, can catch fire by themselves. Oil rags should be stored in air-tight metal containers. It is best to keep them outside the house.

A WILT AS GOOD AS A WILL

A passerby stopped to watch an old man in his garden weeding. "Which weeds do you consider the easiest to kill?" he asked. "Widow's weeds," answered the old man. "You only have to say

"Wilt thou," and they wilt."

In The State of Texas

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.
